

Body of missing Emirati man found

Emirati man was swept away while swimming at the Jumeirah Beach on Friday

- By Siham Al Najami, Staff Reporter
- Published: 12:04 April 18, 2010

Dubai: The body of the missing Emirati man was found 200 metres away from where he was swimming at Jumeirah Beach Residence at 9:20 on Sunday morning.

The 22-year-old Emirati man was last seen swimming along with a 20-year-old colleague who was rescued as they began to drown on Friday.

The rescued 20-year-old Emirati man is in a stable condition. He was rescued by a member of the public.

Air wing units, coastal lifeguards, sea rescue and search teams helped in the search to locate the missing person.

© Gulf News 2010