

Deyaar graft case adjourned

The Dubai Court of First Instance's Presiding Judge Al Saeed Mohammad Barghout adjourned hearing the statement of the Egyptian FCD's expert until next month on the request of defence lawyers and Deyaar's lawyers.

- By Bassam Za'za', Senior Reporter
- Published: 00:00 August 16, 2010

• GULF NEWS

Dubai: A court on Sunday adjourned the Deyaar graft case, involving an ex-minister and Deyaar's former CEO, until September 26 to hear the statement of the Financial Control Department's (FCD) expert for the third time.

The Dubai Court of First Instance's Presiding Judge Al Saeed Mohammad Barghout adjourned hearing the statement of the Egyptian FCD's expert until next month on the request of defence lawyers and Deyaar's lawyers.

The FCD's financial expert, M.M., was present in Courtroom 9 yesterday. When lawyers, claimants in civil right and M.M. approached the bench, they requested the adjournment because they needed more questioning time. A sole hearing will be specified for that purpose.

© Gulf News 2010