

Emirati ex-state minister handed suspended jail term

The former minister was charged with breaching the trust of a Lebanese businesswoman

- By Bassam Za'za, Senior Reporter
- Published: 10:24 April 12, 2010

Dubai: Cassation court has convicted Emirati ex-state minister K.B. and the Indian and American managers of breaching trust of Lebanese businesswoman M.J. in her late brother's stake in an IT company.

Judge Mohammad Nabil Riyad sentenced K.B. and two managers each to one-year suspended jail term and deportation for the American and the Indian managers. The civil lawsuit has been referred to the civil court.

© Gulf News 2010