

Man who broke into fashion store arrested

The stolen items were found in the suspect's car

- Staff Report
- Published: 17:32 June 23, 2010

Dubai: A man was arrested red handed soon after he was on his way out of a fashion store he broke into at 3am.

The robbery happened on Monday when a thief broke into a fashion store to steal over Dh45,000 along with clothes, shoes, and accessories, said Lit Col Ahmad Bin Galita, Director of the Crime Prevention Department of Dubai Police.

A patrol unit circulating the area found the glass at one side of the store shattered and the thief driving away file miles away.

The stolen items were found in the suspect's car and he confessed to police officers of his crime, said Lit Col Bin Galita.

© Gulf News 2010